Enhance Your Work Surface

Desk Pad
for Heckler Lectern
H902

Heckler

Line your Heckler Lectern with an expansive desk pad that will provide an ideal surface for typing, mousing, writing, and document camera use.

Features

Made of premium desktop linoleum and renowned for its elegance and durability. The matte surface and its warm, soft texture make it a unique surfacing solution.

The natural composition and the special surface finish ensure the desk pad is naturally antistatic.

The surface actively resists the build-up of static charges and prevents dust or dirt from sticking to the surface.

Available in twenty one sophisticated colors.

Adheres to the desktop surface to resist sliding and theft.

Desk Pads are sold separately to enable last-mile installation and replacement for years to come.
